

From: NWsource Weekend Highlights [events@nwsource.com]

Sent: Thursday, October 09, 2008 9:34 AM

To: Geoff Carter

Subject: The Buck, puppet shows and sushi in Georgetown

The Seattle Times Company representing the Seattle Post-Intelligencer

your account | unsubscribe
Weekend highlights

Events and activities: Oct. 9 – 12, 2008

ADVERTISING

From the "such is life in the city" department: Two of my favorite hangouts, Belltown's McLeod Residence and South Lake Union's Kapow! Coffee, are closing their doors at the end of this month. The owners of both establishments are looking for new digs, so if you've got any leads, let them know. And be sure to check out the McLeod's galleries and lounge, and drink lots of Kapow's java before the month is out, because really, it couldn't hurt. Might even help.

— Geoff Carter

THE OVERNIGHT DESK

Hitch your wagon to The Buck
This Capitol Hill bar has got the goods -- great cocktails, bizarre decor and plastic parting gifts for every cowpoke.

More in The Overnight Desk

TABLE & CONTENTS

Reel in stellar sushi
Georgetown's Cutting Board boasts 65 different sushi rolls, each one as tempting as round-trip tickets to Tokyo.

More in Table & Contents

LITTLE KIDS, BIG CITY

Tempt your kids with apples, puppets or music
The U-District hosts Apple-Looza, Thistle Theatre presents Aesop's Fables and Benaroya Hall kicks off the Tiny Tots Series.

More in Little Kids, Big City

ENTERTAINMENT

Probe the mysteries of "UFO the Puppet Show"
Master puppeteer Brian Kooser and the miscreants of Monkey Wrench Puppet Lab conspire to bring you the true story of Roswell 1947 -- with scandalous puppet nudity.

More in Entertainment

MINDING THE STORE

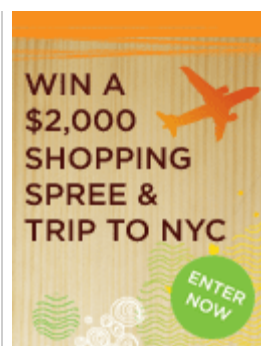

Hop to DIFFA's Party at the Mansion
Dust off those bunny ears -- the Seattle chapter of Design Industries Foundation Fighting AIDS hosts a retro Playboy-themed benefit.

More in Minding the Store

MUSIC & NIGHTLIFE

Relive the happy days with Weezer
It is so! Rivers Cuomo and company give KeyArena a healthy dose of

WIN A $2,000 SHOPPING SPREE & TRIP TO NYC

ENTER NOW

'08 PEOPLE'S PICKS

Seattleites have spoken!

View winners!

upbeat Weezenfreude. The awesome Tokyo Police Club is also on the bill.

More in Music & Nightlife

MORE IN NWSOURCE

The makers of "Monster House" have built an entire "City of Ember."

West Seattle's Bohemian serves eclectic fare worthy of its name.

Giant Sand brings its ghostly, hypnotic western sounds to the Triple Door.

Jim Woodring and Paul di Filippo open the door to "Cosmocopia" at Fantagraphics Books.

Find more highlights for the weekend and beyond at NWsource.

NWjobs | NWautos | NWhomes | NWapartments | NWsource | seattletimes.com | seattlepi.com

webmaster@nwsource.com

Unsubscribe

Advertise with us | Privacy statement | Terms of service

Copyright © 2008 The Seattle Times Company